

LANDSCAPES OF INDENTURE Indian Ocean Routes and Beyond

6 November 2019
14h30-18h00

14h30-14h45 | Opening session

Cristiana Bastos

ICS-ULisboa, PI ERC "The Colour of Labour"
*History, anthropology and conceptual work:
articulating indentured labour routes*

14h45-16h00 | Session 1

Satyendra Peerthum

Aapravasi Ghat Trust Fund, Port-Louis, Mauritius
Indentured Labour Routes Project
They Came to Mauritian Shores': A Social History of the Indentured Workers in Mauritius & the Aapravasi Ghat World Heritage Site, 1826-2019

Colette LePetitcorps

ICS-ULisboa, ERC "The Colour of Labour"
"Lazy Creole Women". Back to the hidden story of a sexual, racial, ethnic category within domestic service relations in Mauritius

Rita Kantu

ICS-ULisboa, ERC "The Colour of Labour"
Life after the plantation: heritage tourism and the colonial imaginary in Mauritius

16h00 – 16h15 Coffee-break

16h15-17h30 | Session II

Nicholas Miller

ICS-ULisboa, ERC "The Colour of Labour"
Colonial Science and Indentured Labour: Trans-Oceanic Connections

Marcelo Moura Mello

Universidade Federal da Bahia
ICS-ULisboa, ERC "The Colour of Labour"
Match weddings and the interstices of longing in contemporary Guyana

Ashutosh Kumar

Nehru Memorial Museum and Library (NMML)
Women Voices from Indenture

17h30-18h00 Discussion and final remarks

Sala Polivalente, ICS